Buckingham

Judge A. S. Hall is at St. Joseph's Hospital, Atlanta, Ga., and his friends are now so glad to hear that he is getting on so nicely. His faithful wife has been with him and it is now hoped that they can soon come home.

On a trip to Lynchburg Saturday I was glad to note that the crops on some farms in the James river valley were looking well. At Wingina, Mr. John Johnson has a lovely piece of corn and he had ten men hands at work with hoes in this corn, and I was told their wages was $2 a day and board themselves. Tobacco on some farms had been planted, and the wheat crops looked fairly well. But I didn't see any winter oats and not a single crop of hay that would be called a full crop.

I saw a man have a barrel of flour coming from the depot at Wingina and he told me he paid $17 for it. Another man told me buyers were offering $3 a bushel for the new crop of wheat.

We read of wool in the West for sale at low prices. Ten carloads were offered at auction in one of the Western cities and 20 cents a pound was the best offer made. And still a two-piece suit of clothes is called cheap at $80 if made of all wool. Notwithstanding the high prices, I never saw people dress better. And the negroes dress about as well as the whites.

No one ever saw nicer weather than we have had for the past two weeks, so far as comfort was concerned; but even the most careless person would like to see warm nights come, and then a timely rain.

Mr. Charlie Wood is buying railroad ties and keeping post office at Wingina, and he is surely one busy man.

The Children's Day exercises at Trinity Methodist church here were held on last Sunday even ng and there was an elaborate program, well carried out, and the children performed their parts well. One very impressive scene was one representing our Savior on the Cross. The songs by adults and by the children were well chosen and well rendered.

Commencing last Monday morning Mr. Scruggs, the contractor on the Farmville mail route, will run his car through from here to Farmville and return each day; this is done by consent of the post office department and will prove a great convenience to persons who want to go to Farmville or who may want to send a letter and get a reply the same day.

The sudden death of Mr. W. E. McCraw was a great surprise here. He was a man far above the average in intelligence, he was a thrifty, industrious man, and had an intelligent family of children.

The exercises incident to the closing of the high school here will begin on Wednesday of this week and end on Friday, the 4th. It is with sincere regret that we patrons of this school give up the services of Professor G. L. Brown, and we hope that he may be able to do great good as pastor of the church he is going to take charge of.

Strawberries are ripe and the price is said to be fifty cents a quart. But I invested in a saucer full and they tasted so good I didn't consider much the cost.

The Evening Journal of Richmond is coming to the former subscribers of the Richmond Virginian, and it is really an acceptable and up to date paper.

Mr. Gray, a gentleman who has been staying at the home of Dr. Morris, was called to Philadelphia by a telegram, and he left on Sunday.

Dr. P. E. Tucker attended a patient in Nelson county near Wingina last Saturday.

Mrs. C. R. Rosen came home from a hospital in Lynchburg on Saturday.

Evergreen

Miss Sallie Hunter was a visitor in our town, also at her old home last week. She has returned to her school in Nelson county.

Mrs. J. W. Harvey was taken to Lynchburg this morning for treatment at the hospital. Her many friends wish for her a speedy recovery.

We are glad to hear that Miss Elizabeth Harvey, who was operated on last week for appendicitis, is getting along nicely.

Mr. W. H. Lee, of Roanoke, and Mr. Willie Hudnall, of New Orleans, were the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Farrar.

Mr. Joe Paulett, Mr. Henry Dickerson, Mr. Eddie Warinor and their friends motored to Amherst and were the guests of Mr. Willie Tolley on Saturday and Sunday. They reported a fine time.

Mr. Hunter Martin, who fell off a scaffold four weeks ago, is still confined to his bed. He has many friends here who are anxious to see him out again.

Mrs. Ella Childress, of Lynchburg, came down Decoration day and brought flowers for her son's grave, sent by his friends in Charleston.

Mrs. George Chenault was the guest of Mrs. J. J. Farrar last week.

Mrs. Hubert Taylor and four children of West Virginia, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Clark. There was quite a gathering at Mr. Clark's on Sunday. There were 17 children, and 12 ladies; but I didn't hear how many men; one man said he had been deaf ever since.

Miss Mattie Farrar visited her aunt, Mrs. Tom Young, near Pamplin on Saturday and Sunday.

We are glad to hear that Miss Bessie Flesh man, who is in the Lynchburg hospital, is improving.

Hixburg

We are glad to note that Mrs. W. L. Ford is much improved, after a two weeks' siege of pneumonia.

We have been slow to make mention that it was likely that Mr. W. L. Coleman and family would move to the county capital. Good farmers are becoming more scarce every year and we are sorry to know that "Marse" Will is going to move his hospitable home from our midst. But if such must be, we resolve to say that while we lose, others gain.

Mr. John Scruggs came near getting one of his hands mashed off while running his saw mill on last Thursday. In some way his hand got caught in the reverse gear.

Our people are busy this week plowing corn and attending the closing exercises of Pamplin high school. We hear many compliments paid Miss Buck and her assistants, as capable and efficient school teachers.

Mr. Harry Davis, of West Virginia, is at home to spend a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Davis.

Our roads look like something more than a mere gully where Mr. Covington has passed over, much to the satisfaction of every one that travels over them.

Mr. F. W. Swan, of Buckingham county, spent several days here among kinspeople and friends, after attending the burial of his sister, Mrs. Helen A. Wilkerson.

DIED

Mrs. Helen A. Wilkerson, widow of the late John W. Wilkerson, of near Prospect, who preceded her to the grave seventeen years ago. Deceased was in her 78th year and had been in declining health for the past several years. The final summons came on Wednesday, May 26. Her body was buried beside her husband in the family burying ground at the home of Mrs. Ella W. Swan on the 27th at 3 p. m. in the presence of a large crowd who came to pay the last tribute of respect to their departed friend and neighbor. The floral designs were many and beautiful. Mrs. Wilkerson leaves the following children: John H., Fred W. and Wiley A. Wilkerson and Mrs. E. E. Glenn, of Prospect, and Mrs. W. A. Swan, of Pamplin; and the following brothers and sister: F. W. Swan, of Wingina; W. W. Swan, of Pamplin, and Mrs. Ira Brown, of Prospect. May the Great Creator comfort the family in this hour of trial.

Northside News

The farmers of this section of the county have been unable to plant any tobacco owing to the light rainfall. Plants are overgrown at this period. Gardens are late; rabbits are destroying much of the vegetation.

Frost and cold winds have caused the fruit to fall off the trees. The crop will be short.

Misses Pearl Allen and Elsie Morgan entertained a few friends last Wednesday night at the home of Mr. M. L. Garrett. Music was furnished by Misses Willie, Elizabeth, Mary, and Ronald Bell.

Miss Thelma Hammersley will spend the week with Miss Janie Scruggs near Pamplin.

Miss Bettie Peak, of Oklahoma, visited her sister, Mrs. W. R. Reynolds, at Glenfall the past week.

The play, Prairie Rose, was a success here; $90 was made; a large crowd was present.

Messrs. Percy Garnett and Leighton Hatcher and wives were week-end guests at Mr. Voiney Carson's.

Rev. Leps preached at Red Oak Sunday morning and at Mr. Joe Layne's in the afternoon. He had a hearty handshake for his many friends, who were glad to see him out again.

Mr. E. Jones Turner, wife and two children of Wingina, were Sunday guests of Mr. C. C. Hammersley. Jones will visit his many relatives and friends during his vacation, who will be delighted to greet him.

Miss Grace Cardwell entertained quite a number of friends on Saturday night before leaving for her home in Campbell county. Misses Cardwell, Allen and Morgan will be much missed by their many friends of the school here, where they taught the past session. Some sad hearts left behind.

Messrs. Leslie Scruggs and Merton Dickerson, of Pamplin, were week-end guests of Miss Thelma Hammersley.

Appomattox High School teachers in Great Demand

Two and possibly more of the present high school faculty have been offered positions away from here next session at an increase of over 100 per cent of their present salary. While our school board is doing all it can to get and keep good teachers, it seems that it too often happens that other schools offer better inducements and get them away from us. It will be recalled that among some of the past high school teachers Miss Reeks, now Mrs. Bedinger, left us and went to John Marshall high school; Miss Cobbs, who went to Norfolk high school; Miss Holland, who is now teaching in John Marshall, and many others who were lured away at a much advanced price; and so it happens this year that two and possibly three of our high school teachers will leave this year for larger fields of usefulness at a very increased salary; while many of our grade teachers are being sought after by other school boards. What is the remedy?

Card of Thanks

We want to take this means of thanking our friends and neighbors for the many thoughtful deeds and sympathy shown during the illness and death of our daughter and sister, also for the beautiful floral tribute.

The Eldorado Stage Co. of Los Angeles tested 22 leading makes on 12-passenger Packard buses. Not a tire was found to match the Millers in that extreme service.

Some Costly Mistakes

Men are Making on Tires

Men who buy tires on a guess, or on claims, are making some costly mistakes.

Large tire users make tests and comparisons. And the results in late years are amazing.

Hudson Taxi Co. of Detroit, for instance, made a long test on Miller Cords. And the average was 15,000 miles.

Miller dealers get hundreds to compare Miller mileage with others. And they find an increased mileage of 50 per cent to 75 per cent.

Large truck users are comparing Miller Cords, passenger type, with all others. And they are coming in large numbers to Millers.

California stage lines are using Millers after million-mile tests with many rivals.

The Way to Know

At the Miller factory over 1,000 tires yearly are worn out in tests and comparisons.

They constantly prove that Miller is the best tire built.

In extreme rear-wheel tests they require an average of 15,000 miles on Cords.

They prove that the new Miller tread outwears the best of others by 25 per cent.

Such tires should be tested by every owner of a car. See what they give you. Compare with any tire on opposite rear wheels.

Miller experts, in late years, have doubled average tire mileage. Old-times figures do not apply today.

You will fix new requirements for your tires when you try a Miller. Do it now.

© 1920

NOW cars are everywhere. The horses have gotten used to them—and so has everybody else. Think of it! This year the American people will spend nearly a billion dollars on tires alone.

Tires are one of the biggest items on the car owner's bills.

II

Hardly a Saturday, when you motorists drop in to "tune up" for a Sunday trip, that one or more of you doesn't tell us something of value to our business. Sooner or later it comes back to you in Service.

Service is what the car owners of this community are looking for nowadays.

And especially the small car owners, who put service first in figuring their motoring expenditures.

III

Just because a man has a moderate-price car is no reason why he should get any less service out of his tires.

We believe that the man with the small car is entitled to just as good tire service as the man with the big car—and both are entitled to the best tire service they can get.

That's why we represent U. S. Tires in this community.

And why more car owners—large and small—are coming to us every day for U. S. Tires.

IV

Come in and talk to us about tires. We're here to help you get the kind of tires you want.

Select your tires according to the roads they have to travel:

For ordinary country roads—The U. S. Chain or Usco.

For front wheels—The U. S. Plain.
